The Directors

This year's Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre is written and student directed by Lorlai Daniel & Chris Luckie under the supervision of Wyatt Hamilton. The student directors received a chance to experience writing a script and directing actors to achieve their vision.

The Actors

The actors have been given the chance to perform in a largely improvised show. This gives the actors practice thinking on their feet and is a device to let the actors exercise their abilities. Remember, as an audience member in this interactive theatre experience you are part of the cast!

*Denotes membership in the International Thespian Society. Visit www.parkviewtheatre.com for more information about this honor.
