

STAGECRAFT TEACHER / TECHNICAL DIRECTOR JOB DESCRIPTION:

For more information, please visit: <http://www.parkviewtheatre.com/stagecraft-job.html>

Parkview Arts & Science Magnet High School is in search of a Stagecraft I, II and III theatre teacher! If you wish to work at the premier public arts magnet school in the state serving a diverse and engaging student body with a team of theatre educators, this position is for you!

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate for the job will have a B.A. or higher in Theatre Arts and a teaching certification in the area of Theatre. Individuals in pursuit of alternative certification are also welcome.

Candidates should be willing to lead production projects after school (with stipends available) while facilitating and maintaining an academically rigorous class load. The candidate will facilitate technical elements of production (theatrical design, set construction, lighting, and sound); help manage the scheduling and use of a 1,000 seat Performing Arts Center, and collaborate with other theatre faculty.

Skills Needed:

- Theatre-specific understanding of design and implementation of sets, lighting, and sound for productions (making use of the elements & principles of design and color theory);
- Stage management techniques and practice;
- Curriculum planning & classroom management.

Responsibilities:

- Leading students in designing and constructing theatrical sets, lighting and sound;
- Understanding and enforcing safety protocol & procedures when working with power tools and equipment;
- Creating engaging lesson plans and meaningful hands-on projects to inspire, challenge, and inform. See the Arkansas Standards for Technical Theatre HERE.
- Managing classroom behavior & tasks;
- Planning and organizing production logistics;
- Mentoring students in the years leading up to adulthood.

This job is ideal for candidates who wish to make a positive social impact in education and work as a part of a team. Collaboration is an essential element of the Parkview Theatre & Film program. You will be part of a team of Theatre teachers who support and assist each other.
